

2023 WESTFALL EDUCATION FOUNDATION SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

Each year, the Westfall Education Foundation honors a community member who has demonstrated service to the Westfall Community by giving of his or her time, talents and treasures. The honoree exemplifies service to others. This year the Westfall Education Foundation's honoree is Mr. Keith Downing.

His illustrious teaching and coaching career spanned 30 years. This included 15 years at Westfall where he taught Business classes and then classes for Pickaway Ross and then 15 years at Circleville.

His amazing coaching career at Westfall started as an assistant football coach under Clarence Perry then he became the head coach. His record over 13 years was 95 wins and 34 losses. This included 7 SVC Championships and the first State Playoffs for Westfall in 1996 and then made it to the State again in 2012. These great years at Westfall also included 7 years as SVC Coach of the Year, one year as Central District Coach of the Year and Assistant Coach for the Big 33 Game in 1994. And, in his spare time at Westfall he was the freshman baseball coach for 3 years and Jr. High track coach for 1 year.

In addition to the many great years at Westfall, he then went on to coach football for Circleville for 15 years.

Keith's lovely wife, Nancy is a Westfall School Nurse. They have 2 children and 4 grandchildren.
